This seemingly compact house is a modern reminiscence on the theme of the 1930s Art Deco style. The whole "everyday" part of life is hidden from the eyes in the basement. It features a steam room and a spacious movie theater. On the ground floor besides a spacious hall, living room, dining room and kitchen, there is the main feature of this house which makes it unique - a gazebo that can be used as a winter garden, a sports hall or a playground.
